

STANDARD REPUBLICAN—1907
MAYSVILLE LEDGER—1908

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1912.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

HE SAW IT FIRST.
"Eureka!" cried the ground hog,
As his shadow gloomed his path;
The coal man dived with joy,
And the ice man fled in wrath.
"Eureka! I have seen it,"
Cried the terra firma about.
And the public wailed: "No matter,
Long as some one gets my goat!"

Mrs. Lilly Hicks and children of Ripley, O.
Mr. and Mrs. George Dunbar of Hamilton, O.
James, Elmer, Clarence and Henry Dunbar and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coudell of Indianapolis, Ind., were here Thursday in attendance upon the funeral of Mrs. Martha Dunbar.

Miss Metcalfe's Will

Should anything happen to me I desire that I dispose of my estate as follows:
I leave my reference to the Public Mentals which
I wish my brother, Tom,
Maria Wilcox,
Herson, the best
of my friends,
to take care of.

ONE SHOVELFUL

OF THE BEST COAL

Is worth two of the other kind. You can prove it by trying some of our coal. It will cost nothing extra to make the trial. It will really cost you less, for you'll find your bin holding out longer, while you have as much heat or more than you had before.
How many tons shall we send?

Editor Hiram Duley of The Times-Democrat, Flemingsburg, was in the city yesterday visiting his daughter, Mrs. Pickett Wood of East Fourth street, and attending the tobacco sales in the East End. He also paid THE LEDGER a pleasant call. Editor Duley will soon round out his thirty-third year as editor and publisher of his sprightly and interesting paper, and it is hoped he may continue many more years in the service doing good and enlightening his constituents.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Morning subject: "The Baptist Position on the Memorial Supper."
As we are accused of being selfish and are unjustly criticised because we hold what some call, "Close Communion," I extend a cordial invitation to all to be present and hear the facts clearly stated. There will not be a sentence in the sermon that anyone can become founded at, who is disposed to be reasonable.
The great majority of the people do not know our position on the supper, and still they criticize us. You will have a chance to know Sunday morning by coming to the First Baptist Church.
Evening subject: "An Old Patched Garment."

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back
Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and from the first day, it seemed to help.
I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."
Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.
Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.
In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui.
The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways.
Try it.

Fancy Linens

Some of our handsomest Scarfs, Luncheon Cloths and Stand Covers were soiled by use in store and window decoration. They are beautiful drawn work pieces done on extra fine linen. We have marked them at prices that will strongly appeal to women who can judge bargains in fine linen and needle work.
Among these handsome linens are a few drawn linen,
hemstitched and embroidered doilies, slightly soiled.
Some of these doilies are large enough for center pieces. Our store is full of bargains. Come in.

Why do we compliment our patrons with valuable present year after year? No intelligent person will accuse us of resorting to catch-penny methods to further our business. It's simply this: Whilst the lucky recipients of our presents receive handsome and valuable articles, the total amount we present you with amounts to so small a per cent. on our volume of business that it will require a better mathematician than our house can boast of to figure it. We do it to show our appreciation to the multitude of patrons that make our house headquarters for their purchases for merchandise pertaining to our lines. In Mon-

JAMES N. KEHOE and Hon. RUFUS are mentioned as the probable dele- gata from the Ninth District to the Demo- cratic National Convention at Baltimore.

THE British budget for the fiscal year 1910- 11, aggregated the great sum of $885,000,000. It is evident that the United States is not the only country where living is high. Over $46,- 000,000 of this estimate is for old-age pensions. It is the old-age pensions, and the cry for more eadnoughts, which has produced the finan- crisis, which is at the bottom of present ish political troubles.—San Francisco ronicle.

ow that the smoke of battle has cleared away and each of the distinguished contestants has given his final word on the subject, it may be possible to get a reasonable angle on Wilson and Watterson. the WILSON WATTER- SON imbroglia. The whole affair would be ghly unimportant but for the probable effect on the chances of one who gave being a serious contender in the he Democratic presidential nomi-ntucky editor has expressed the un- opinion that some one has lied.

ps he is correct in his conclusion, but even that would be a matter of minor con- sideration from a public viewpoint if it simply involved differences concerning the proper ingredients of a mint julep, but when it hinges upon the charge of ingratitude and involves the good faith of a man who aspires to the highest office in the gift of the Ameri- can people, it becomes a serious question in which all the people are interested.

There seems to be no doubt that Colonel HARVEY did his utmost to promote the can- didacy of the former Princeton president or at his work was done in good faith and with- out thought of personal reward. There is no doubt that at a recent conference the New Jersey editor asked the New Jersey Governor considered the support of Harper's ally of any assistance in his campaign for Democratic nomination and was informed that it was considered a handicap.

Later he wrote a letter to Colonel HARVEY which was so worded that the latter might re- ceive it as an apology, and which asked for a continuance of the personal friendship of the editor.

All of which may be regarded by Governor LEON as justifiable, but which is going to make the average man as an astute way of saving both ends against the middle." As it was in the beginning, the whole affair has been highly unimportant but for it is indicative of a hitherto un- known in the character of a man who is regarded as a presidential possi- bility.

The Democrats have kept the faith with the temperance people and passed the County Unit Bill, but the whiskey men's faith in the insin- cerity of McCREARY has been fearfully shattered.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

REPUBLICANS in Washington who desire nothing from the TAYT administration and who have received nothing from this source, but who keep well informed of their party's affairs, state that in their judgment Presi- dent TAYT will easily be renominated and re- elected.

February seventh will be the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of CHARLES DICKENS. Preparations are being made in all of the larger cities of the country for elaborate cele- brations of the centennial of the writer who has entranced so many readers with his stories.

A merchant who thinks only of "the cost" of advertising often persuades himself that by advertising on y half as much as usual, he is saving one-half of the expense of advertising. The same logic would lead him to keep his store open but half the time—thus cutting running expenses in half, and "saving" all that money! The plan of adequate advertising service (for your ads do render a most val- uable service to your patrons) is as essential to store success as the plan of keeping the store open every shopping day!

Foolish Philosophy.

Every business is more or less like the life insurance business—not much comes unless you go after it.

If you want to hear that there is no chastity among women, associate with women who are unhappy outcasts because of lack of it.

I was once seated in front of a Paris cafe eating a lunch. A drunken Frenchman who was passing began abusing me in the most violent manner. Finally the drunken man passed on. "Why did he abuse me?" I asked the guide. "Because you are sober," the guide replied.

Why is it that the simplest moral fact can- not be agreed upon? Thousands of men are tricky, to their own injury, because of the false statement, constantly heard, that if a man hopes to succeed he must be a thief; which is as palpably untrue as that a man may get along better with one arm than with two.

On Sunday a woman tries to let the regular dinner hour slip by, thinking her husband won't notice it when he is not doing anything. But that's the time he is particularly apt to notice it.

Don't let your admirers worry as to whether you can come back; don't go away.

Children always enjoy a joke on their par- ents.

A "story" often has an insignificant start, and becomes big by reason of inventions added to it. The story that Francis Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays was started by a country town woman named Delia Bacon, who claimed to be related to the noted man of that name and that her "Uncle Francis" wrote "Hamlet," advertised for performance in the town hall.

Actors talk a great deal of their "make-up." I've never seen a make-up on the stage or else- where that wasn't disagreeable and unnatural. —Ed Howe.

"And your husband gave $50,000 for that old book?"
"Yes," replied Mrs. Cumrox.
"To show how much you care for literature, I suppose?"
"No. To show how little we care for $50,000."

Happily Married

Many Nice Little Things for Wife to Study

By ANNA T. PERKINS

NO WOMAN should permit herself to become too familiar with her husband. Always make him respect you. If he does you a kindness, thank him; if you meet him on the street, speak to him as politely as you would to a stranger. Never tag around after him and give him the impression that you are watching him; a man dislikes to be hanging on a woman's apron strings. Don't expect him to do your housework for you, and don't scold.

Never be anxious for him to tell you where he has been if he is twenty minutes late to his meals; eat your lunch and let him have what is left.

And, sisters, don't cry for every cross word. Just get the forgetting habit; forget to hear.

I read up funny stories, war news, everything in general I know he likes to hear, and he doesn't go to the saloon for news, for I try to keep right up to date. I am not beautiful, nor finely educated, nor a musician, but I am a good cook and can do sewing very neatly. His clothes are always clean, his meals always ready, and I am sure my husband loves me. I have been married eight years.

What do I most admire about him? It is just this: He never talks unkindly of anyone and he never scolds.

I was always a good talker, but I have learned that to keep your mouth shut up tight when you see he is cross is the great secret of happiness.

My husband is very proud and likes to look nice. I do admire neat- ness in a man.

Now, I have seen that married life surely has its ups and downs. But a woman causes all her own troubles, generally.

Try to save and remember that that money is yours and his together. Never get the habit of running to him for money. Tell him about how much you want on pay day and make it do. Always be sure you ask for plenty; then if you have any left over put it away.

If you must talk, don't gossip, but talk over business matters or some pleasant thing.

My husband does not like to go out in the eve- nings, but if I want to go I dress up the children and go. Don't ask if you can; tell him nicely you are going.

Be independent, but don't show off about it; and learn to listen to his ideas. If you disagree with him, do not say so unless he asks for your opinion.

Don't tell him every silly thing, what you buy and what you do, unless he asks you. Learn that the greatest secret of happiness is silence. Flatter him, make him think he is just the thing.

A man is very much like a child. Be firm and kind and always a lady, and he is yours always.

Open Muffler Motor Fiend Is Disliked

By G. N. HAMILTON, President of Federation of American Motorcyclists courtesy and gentlemanly conduct, and it is bending every energy in these directions.

The objects of the Federation of American Motorcyclists are to en- courage the use of motorcycles and to promote the general interests of motorcycling; to ascertain, protect and defend the rights of motorcyclists; to facilitate touring; to assist in the good roads movement and to govern and administer the sport of motorcycle racing and other competitions in which motorcycles engage.

We know that as an association we can "promote the general interests of motorcycling" only through law observance, courtesy and a realization of the rights of others. These ends we are striving to attain.

The motorcycle as a vehicle has made a place for itself in pleasure as well as business. It has come to stay. But, if we have our way, it will be respected and hold a dignified as well as a useful position in this motor driven age.

I dislike the open muffler "fiend" cordially—and so does the Federa- tion of American Motorcyclists. I believe there is only one place for speeding and that is on a carefully constructed race track.

There the rider alone takes chances. And through the regulation, restriction and supervision of the Federation of American Motorcyclists these are reduced to a minimum.

Present Order of Society Not Blamed

By W. SMYTHE

In my opinion it is a mistake to at- tribute crimes to "the present order of so- ciety." In what way would education remedy the evil? A man who commits murder in cold blood is a murderer at heart and the only possible benefit he might have derived from thorough education would be cognition of the fact that if he must kill it is safer to do it in a clandestine manner and not on the king's highway.

A bulldog is a bulldog and should not be tantalized. The thoroughbred is not one bit more to be trusted than the vagrant. It runs in the family. The human family consists of every conceivable nature. Two boys born in a good atmosphere and bred amid the best surroundings enter college with two widely differ- ent characteristics and will so leave it, even if you ram education into them at a pound a minute.

A writer asserts that educated people, brought up in a fortunate envi- ronment, do not commit murders which call for capital punishment. If that is true, then we are an uneducated family, for such crimes are executed all around us and by all classes.

The most deplorable fact is that our laws, which apply to all, are not applied to the impetuous collegian as to the drowsy of the majority.

Ill Omen in Ohio Valley

Huntington, (W. Va.) Herald.
The appearance of a long line of sea gulls on the river yesterday has caused considerable quaking in the hearts of local rivermen for the birds are regarded as harbingers of evil, and it is said they never fly over a river except to precede a flood of unusual proportions.

Big Farm Sold

Powell Barlow of Glasgow, Ky., sold the Satterfield farm of 2,800 acres on Harrington, in Allen county, for $75,000, the J. U.
Rogers Co. of Glasgow, being the buyer. The Satterfield farm is one of the best farms in Southern Kentucky, and while from containing several hundred acres of bottom land is admirably adapted to stock raising.

TESTIMONIAL

Presented to Manager Robert E.
Lee of the Palace Hotel By Drummers

Sunday's Enquirer

To show their appreciation of courtesies covering a period of years the members of Ohio Division Travelers' Protective Association last evening presented to Robert E.
Lee, Manager of the Palace Hotel, a handsome mission cellophane well stocked with the various kinds of liquors, together with a cut glass decanter, glasses, cigar jar, &c.

The presentation speech was made by former National President E. W. Donham, who outlined to Mr. Lee the many reasons why the "knights of the grip" desired to so remember him.

Mr. Lee responded when he had sufficiently recovered from his surprise and in a brief address thanked the members for their mem-brance. He then ordered an elaborate buffet lunch and the remainder of the evening was spent socially.

THE ONLY WAY

Many Maysville Citizens Have Discovered it

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood often lead to life-long suffering.
People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth of age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness makes life a burden.

There is one remedy that has won fame for its action on sick kidneys and is recommended by thousands.

Read this proof.
Mrs. John T. Wallingford, 108 Commerce street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with great benefit, and it gives me pleasure to corroborate the testimonials given for publication in their praise some years ago."
"Doan's Kidney Pills afforded me great relief and I have no hesitation in again recommending them."

ROBBERS LEAVE MEN IN ADAM'S GARB

Strip Bowling Alley Patrons of Clothes in Washroom After Taking Valuables.

Chicago.—The last word in ingenious robbery is to rob and disrobe the victim in a washroom and then leave him shivering in his Adam-like garb, trusting to his natural modesty to prevent him from breaking forth in hot pursuit.

This was tried so successfully a few nights ago that two men—one a detective and the possessor of two revolvers—shivered and shrunk up against a wall of a little washroom in Bensinger's bowling alley.

There was one feature of the affair that made it possible for the robbers

to escape. It was ladies' night at the bowling alley. The two victims of the robbers peeped from their uncomfortable quarters at the crowd of women at the other end of the alleys, then at their own forms in the mirror.

That was enough.
Thomas Fay of 4530 Clifton avenue and James Devury, a Pinkerton detective, were the victims.

Two negroes entered the washroom just as Fay was removing from his face the perspiration acquired in an exciting game. A revolver was thrust to his head and he was compelled to give up a watch and the contents of his pockets—$2.

Then, to guarantee a safe departure,
the robbers removed Fay's clothes, also at the point of a revolver. Just then Devury entered and saw Fay, apparently preparing for a cold dry bath. The smile froze on his lips, however, as a revolver was pushed against his own breast. His pockets were emptied.

The two victims shivered and shouted until a pin boy finally came to their relief, but the hold-up men had had time to get miles away.

BULLETS MERELY GOAD BULL

Fueltide From Rifles Fails to Kill Animal Purchased by Butchers and Heavier Arms Used.

Muncie, Ind.—A bull that apparently carries no more for bullets than it does for bee stings and that fairly eats the leaden pellets when they are fired into it for the purpose of converting it into beef, is the worry of a local firm of butchers. The animal, which is savage, is owned by J. M.
Hartley, six miles north of here, and Hartley sold it to the butchers. For several days the bull has successfully resisted the efforts of eight men to kill it.

The first attempt to kill the animal was made recently when three employees of the butchering establish-

Bullets Merely Goaded Him.

ment, all heavily armed with rifles, went to the Hartley farm and began a bombardment. After they had fired a number of shots into the animal's head with no effect except to make it angry and paw the earth, the butchers became discouraged, and came back to town for reinforcements. The following day two other butchers, armed with larger bore rifles, went to the farm and fired a dozen bullets into the bull. These seemed to annoy the animal somewhat, for it bellowed and ran to the rail fence where the "hunters" were sitting, causing them to make a hasty getaway. An express ride will be used on the animal.
